

Al Dahra is committed to upholding the highest standards of quality, health, safety, and environmental responsibility across all its operations. As a leading figure in agribusiness, with extensive agricultural land holdings and a global reach spanning over 20 countries, Al Dahra recognizes its duty to prioritize QHSSE (Quality, Health, Safety, Security & Environment) practices to safe-guard the well-being of its employees, contractors, stakeholders, and the public. Our purpose is to achieve targets in a safe and secure environment.

Our commitment to QHSSE is rooted in compliance with applicable local laws, international standards, and best practices. The Global Leadership Team of Al Dahra acknowledges its pivotal role in fostering a safe and secure environment and is dedicated to achieving targets that uphold these principles.

To achieve our QHSSE objectives, Al Dahra adheres to the following principles:

1. Compliance

We ensure that all Al Dahra policies, operations, and services comply with relevant international, national, and local laws, regulations, standards, and specifications.

2. Continuous Improvement

We dedicate ourselves to enhancing our QHSSE management systems by allocating resources efficiently, monitoring KPIs, and setting targets for our departments.

3. Employee Wellbeing

We prioritize employee well-being. Through training, development, and initiatives promoting a healthy work balance and periodical medical checkups.

4. Environmental Responsibility

We identify and mitigate environmental impacts, prevent pollution, and implement sustainable practices for energy, and resource optimization.

5. Risk Management

We identify and assess occupational safety and health hazards, implementing measures to mitigate risks and prevent injury and illness among internal & external stakeholders.

6. Incident Management

We effectively manage incidents that may affect people, environment, or disrupt Al Dahra operations, aligning with business continuity objectives and risk appetite within defined scopes.

7. Product Safety and Quality

We uphold the highest standards of safety, quality, and hygiene throughout our operations, adhering to relevant laws, policies, and guidelines.

8. Training and Development

We ensure sustainable investment in the QHSSE training and development resources to continuously improve our staff QHSSE competencies.

Additionally, Al Dahra have established Golden Safety Rules, which complement these principles and direct our actions on the ground. Any infringement upon the policy statement or any of the QHSSE rules will prompt corrective action which may include disciplinary action according to set norms.

Both the policy statement and the Golden Safety Rules are communicated to and comprehended by all employees, contractors, stakeholders, and visitors through induction, training programs, and prominent displays.
